Neighbors briefs

NORTHWEST SIDE

Neighbors to meet

The La Cañada/Magee Neighborhood Association, a non-profit, volunteer organization in the Casas Adobes area, will meet at 6:30 p.m. Thursday in the Grace Hall of Lutheran Church of the Ascension, 1220 W. Magee Road, near the northeast corner of La Cañada Drive.

The program includes association board nominations, recent zoning issues, local road construction reports and Pima County building code changes. Also, an official of the La Cañada Fire District will report the results of its annexation petition and the district's service plans.

Pima County Supervisor Ann Day is expected to attend the public meeting and comment on county developments affecting the neighborhood.

The meeting is free and open to the public. For more information, visit the Association's Web site, www.lcmna.org, or call 742-2032.

CENTRAL

Grant Rd. changes focus of meeting

Tucson City Council member Nina Trasoff will host a community conversation on the Grant Road Improvement Plan from 6:30 to 8 p.m. Thursday at the Ward 6 Council Office, 3202 E. First St.

The meeting will begin with a brief presentation on the plan followed by a facilitated conversation about future plans. City transportation staffers and members of the Grant Road team will be available to answer questions.

Details from the conversation will be shared with the Grant Road Improvement Plan Task Force and others working on the plan.

Background information, announcements and timelines on the plan are online at www.grantroad.info or are available by calling 624-4727.

W. University area plans workshops

West University residents and property owners are invited to workshops presented by the West University Neighborhood Association about the development of areas in and around the neighborhood.

The first workshop is 9 a.m. to noon Saturday at Trinity Presbyterian Church, 400 E. University Blvd. Call 623-1664 to reserve a seat. The second workshop will be 9 a.m.-noon Jan. 26 at the same location.

FOOTHILLS

Steel drum band to play at benefit

The Catalina Foothills High School Steel Drum Band will play a benefit hosted by Cold Stone Creamery from 6 to 8 p.m. Wednesday in the Cold Stone Creamery parking lot, 6960 E. Sunrise Drive, at the corner of East Sunrise Drive and North Kolb Road.

The store will donate a portion of its proceeds to the high school's Band Boosters, and the band also will be accepting donations.
